

Travelite Retractable USB Lamp - F8E448ea

The Belkin USB Retractable Light conveniently illuminates your keyboard anywhere you use your portable computer - whether you're traveling or relaxing at home. It easily connects to your laptop's USB port and offers just the right amount of light for typing on a plane, taking notes in your car, or accessing data from the bed in your hotel room. The retractable cable is convenient for storage, and the compact swiveling head focuses light where you need it. It's the perfect solution for working as you travel without disturbing those nearby.
